

The Michaux~St. James Foundation

Preserving Powhatan's Legacy

Powhatan county is full of remarkable places that tell the American story - and they need your help. From historic chapels and buildings to ancient sites, from our numerous natural resources to the environment at large - many of these icons and ecosystems are endangered as never before. Join the Michaux-St. James Foundation and help us save these irreplaceable gems.

The Michaux-St. James Foundation, a privately funded nonprofit organization, provides leadership, education, advocacy, and resources to save and preserve central Virginia's diverse historic places and revitalize our communities.
